

Resisting the Atomic Bomb:

Japanese Survivors & Activists Make the Case for Disarmament

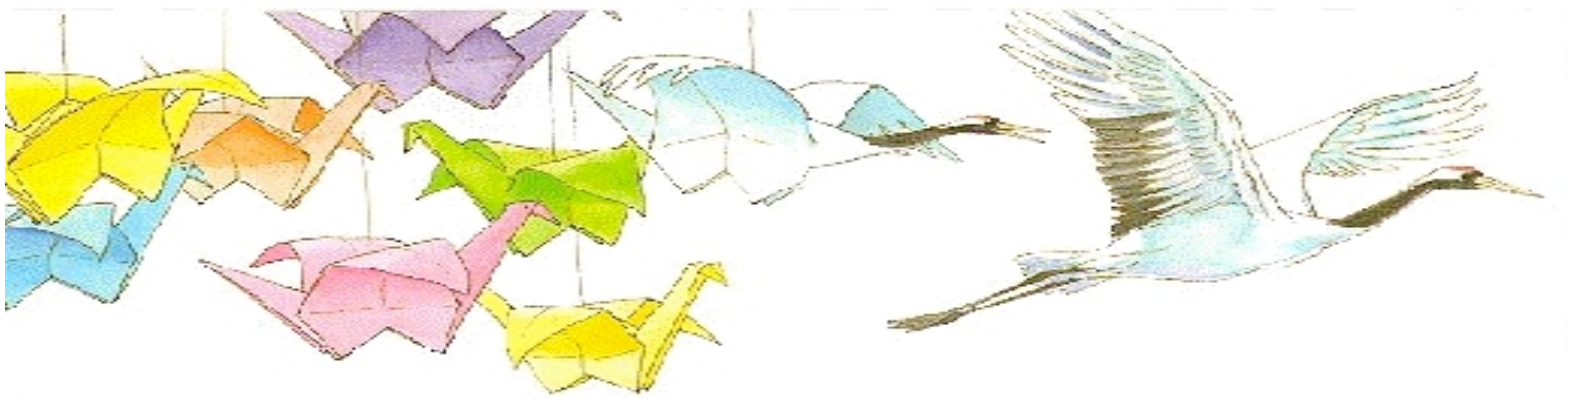

Saturday, October 7th

6:30 pm ~ potluck snacks

7:00 pm ~ forum

Reception to follow

At the Governor's Inn, 78 Wakefield Street, Rochester NH

A delegation of dozens of Japanese peace activists and hibakusha (A-bomb survivors) has come to the United States to deliver 500,000 petitions to the UN that call for global nuclear disarmament.

The activists will talk with us about the continuing danger of nuclear weapons, and the need for the U.S. to adhere to its responsibilities as a signatory of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty. We will also learn about Japan's current struggles over issues of war and peace.

Free & Open to the Public.

Sponsored by NH Peace Action & Seacoast Peace Response
FMI: Anne Miller anne@nhpeaceaction.org or 603-749-9159