

Sacred Circle Dance for Peace

Saturday, October 16, 7:00 pm

At the Community Church of Durham, UCC, 17 Main St, Durham NH

People in all cultures, throughout history and across the world, dance to promote community and celebrate life. We join in this tradition with dances from a multi-cultural folk background.

This is participatory dancing, the dance of the people, with no performance aspect, accessible to many ages, body types, experience and age levels. Simple dances and dances for peace will be emphasized and Amy will teach them all.

No experience necessary, no partner needed.

Amy has been teaching Sacred Circle Dance in the Seacoast NH/ME area since 2000. She has been an activist even longer, including being a main organizer for Seacoast Peace Response based in Portsmouth, NH, a sponsor of this event.

Part of The Community Church of Durham's October 2010 Series:
PEACE IN OUR TIME

Free and open to the public
